A VALUABLE MAN.

Merchant: Well, if Sparks is a good salesman, I would like to get hold of him.

Partner: Oh, yes, he's a good salesman, but he's a terrible stutterer.
Why the other day he tried to give a customer a price on a piece of silk, but before he could get it out, the market price of that silk had fallen two dollars a yard. The woman took the piece rather than ask him if he couldn't make a reduction.

Merchant: We want Sparks. — Tid Bits.

KING OF WAYLAND SEMI-NARY.

ARE THE CHARGES TRUE? WHAT REPUTABLE MINISTERS CHARGE HIM WITH.

At a delegated meeting of Baptist ministers, to consider the action of Dr. King of Wayland Seminary, and his treatment to colored students, an address to the Baptist churches of the United State and the American Home Mission society has been issued.
The address charges Dr. King in the year of '78 with mistreating a student by the name of Young; that at Redbank, N. J., when Prof. King was with his jubilee troupe, he became so angry with one of his lady singers, Miss Anna M. Mason, that when she attempted to ascend the steps of the cars en route to Washington, his passion so far got the better of him, that he pushed her forcibly from the second step to the first, against the car. In the spring of '78 a lady student, Miss Maggie A. Washington, who had been quite ill for several weeks, and as a result had a very poor appetite, went to Prof.
King's door while he was at luncheon (the students at this time were not allowed luncheon.) She asked him, "If she might not ask the cook to give her a piece of bread." There upon he became enraged; told her "to leave the door and go down stairs." She replied that she was too feeble to go." Then he seized her by the arm and terged her down stairs at a rapid rate into the kitchen, jerked her around and hurt her side, from which she has been suffering during her illness; that Miss Mary E. Williams a young lady a member in good and regular standing of one of the Baptist churches was most violently and outrageously assaulted. The address also mentions many other charges and has the names of Revs. R. S. Laws, Walter H. Brooks, Wm. J. Walker, and W. H. Scott, signed, representing the committee.

FOR RENT—A handsome furnished room in a first class fami-

THE FREEDMAN'S HOSPI-TAL.

THE REMOVAL OF DR. C. E. PURVIS.
HIS ATTEMPT TO BE AN INDEPEN-DENT. A MEMBER OF THE REPUB-LICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE AND A CANDIDATE FOR THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION. A MEMBER OF
THE SCHOOL BOARD, PROFESSOR IN HOWARD UNIVERSITY AND SUR-GEON IN CHARGE OF THE FREED-MAN'S HOSPITAL. HIS SUCCESSOR NOT YET DECIDED UPON.

The petition that is in circulation requesting the secretary of the Interior to make a change at the Freedman's Hospital will be forwarded to the secretary of the Interior next week. There are about 500 names signed to the petition.
Communications have been sent to secretary Lamar, to the effect that Dr. Purvis is an "offensive partisan." The petition sets forth that Dr. Purvis was a member of the National Republican Committee and a candidate for the republican convention. He holds too many offices and he claims that Samuel Randall of Pennsylvania is at his back and so Negro can get his place. The petition further says, that he is member of the board of school trustees, one of the professors in the Howard Medical school, Surgeon in Charge of the Freedman's Hospital, and a practicing physician, and from all these positions, except the school board, he is receiving big wages.
The Bee scribe learns, that Secretary Lamar, has decided to make a change, and Dr. Purvis' successor will probably be either Dr. J.
R. Francis, Cook or Augusta. Dr.
Francis is from one of the best families in the city, and his appointment would meet with universal approval. He is no politician, hence no democrat will oppose him. Dr. Samuel Le Count Cook is from one of the oldest and most respectable citizens. His father, the late John F. Cook, did a great deal for the colored people in this community. He has large practice in this city and has the reputation of being a first class surgeon. This gentleman is backed by Dr. Garnett and a large number of democratic medical men. Dr. Augusta, has the reputation of being a first class physician and surgeon. He was one of the few men who served with credit in the army during the war. He has never taken part in politics. Dr. Augusta is very conservative in his views and will no doubt make a fine Surgeon in charge of the Freedman's Hospital. Secretary Lamar has not decided, as yet which of the three gentlemen will be appointed, but it can be relied upon that one of the three will probably be appointed.

Dr. Howard of New York is being urged for the place.

DEDICATION OF THE "CHURCH OF OUR REDEEM- ER." [LUTHERAN.]

A LIBERAL COLLECTION. AN ELO-QUENT SERMON, &c.

On last Sabbath evening, June 20, the "Church of Our Redeemer," which is situated on 8th st., near Howard University, was filled with an appreciative audience, representing some of the best element of the white and colored people of the District. The occasion was the formal dedication of the new edifice to the service of Almighty God. Rev. D. E. Wis-man the pastor, shared his pulpit with Drs. Butler, Craighead, Slaybaugh and Hamma, the last of whom is from Baltimore and preached the dedicatory sermon.
It is useless to attempt to give an adequate account of the sermon for were the Bee to record the gems of thought that fell from the lips of that distinguished Divine, the scribe would lose the eloquence with which he presented them. The text was "What mean-ye by these stones?" Dr. Hamma graphically related the miracle of the dividing of the Jordan, and as we sat there we saw the mighty walls into which the water had been transformed, and the Israelites walking bravely over the bed of the deep. The Dr. then applied his text to the event of the evening and after giving a brief history of the church, he concluded with an impassioned appeal for the Catholicity of the Christian religion and of the Lutheran faith.
During the whole sermon the audience was kept spell-bound, every body seeming to be wholly under the control of the speaker. After the sermon Rev. Dr. Butler of the Lutheran Memorial church, read the dedicatory service. The baskets were then passed, and a liberal collection was lifted. The music was furnished by the choir of Dr. Butler's church, and was quite a feature of the occasion, completely harmonizing with the sermon that was preached.

This church was built by the liberal donations of Christ's people from all sections of the country. It is not yet year old, but is already felt in the community, in which it is situated, having a Sunday school of over two hundred registered attendants. It is a beautiful little brick edifice of the Gothic style, having all the modern conveniences. Its pastor, Rev. D. E. Wiseman is of St.
Thomas, West Indies, and though young in the work, he bids fair to gain laurels for the church and for himself. He is a graduate of the Divinity school of Howard University, of the class of '84, and is the only colored man in America educated for the Lutheran ministry. It is to be hoped that this Lutheran church will prove to the people that the creed of "Justification by Faith" is general in its adaptation. May the "Church of Our Redeemer" thrive and may many find redemption through the instrumentality of its ardent pastor.

WEST WASHINGTON.

N. E. SEDGWICK, Agent and Reporter, 1315
27 Street.

Rev. C. W. Cole, the eloquent divine of Zion Union A. M. E.
Mission, is fast becoming popular in our section, since his appointment a few weeks ago.

The Independent Pilgrims are again in the field. They are connected with the Ebenezer A. M. E. church. They scored another laurel Thursday evening at their fete at Vanness park.

This section has the honor of having two of the Minor Normal graduates this session. Misses Evans and Riddles. They were the recipient of numerous and costly works of Shakespeare and other literature.

The famous Arion Male quartette, Messrs. Butler, Parrott, Walker and Sedgwick, failed to make their second trip to Baltimore in consequence of the inability of their baritone Mr. L. F. Walker to attend.

Miss Fanny Saunders accidently shot herself through the hand, a few days ago, while playing with a revolver causing a painful wound.
We sincerely trust it will not interfere with the matrimonial alliance between Miss Saunders and one of our esteemed citizens which is reported will take place at such a short period.

Mrs. and Miss Madden 1320 27 st., have removed to their new residence in Montgomery, st.

The principal topic in this section which is attracting all lover-of entertainments is the comp ti-tive drill at Vanness park. Sadly, do we admit we have no military organization in this section to enter the contest,

The many friends of Mr. Aliff Butler Sr., will be sorry to learn of his serious illness at his residence 1321 27th st.

The string band under the management of Messrs. Pryor & Shipley furnished excellent music at the birthday fete of one of the prominent representatives Thursday evening last.

Mrs. Nancy Mars, who has been lying ill at her residence 1305 27th st., was removed Wednesday morning to Providence Hospital.

Mr. Charles Law-on, 1309 27th st., has left for New York,

Misses Iola Westburn and K. tie Smith left Tuesday for Connecticut.

Notwithstanding the rain which fell in torrents on Tuesday last, the closing exercises of the Wornley School were the scene of attraction.

Miss Estelle Johnson 1406 27th st., will leave for New York next week to remain during the summer.

A prominent Divine delivered an eloquent sermon to a large and appreciative audience at the 1st Baptist church Wednesday evening.

The ancient Daughters of Tabistha No. 5, of which Mrs. Catharine Morris is President, assisted by No. 7, of which Mrs. R. J.
Holmes, is the executive, went to Union Wesley A. M. E. church on Sunday evening last, where they listened to an able and eloquent sermon from Rev. Heckter pastor in charge of the above church. Mr. J. Davenport acted as spokesman and satisfactorily performed his duties.

The closing exercises at the Chamberlain building, (our mother school) were also grand.

A communication from Mr. and Mrs. Bartholemew McDaniel, who were lately married and left for New York, states that they will remain as they have commenced house keeping. Mrs. A. Beckett, the mother of Mrs. McDaniel will pay her a visit next week.

We certainly think that some of our esteemed brethren and divines in holding their praise meetings, error on this particular point and that is, in calling on brother Tom, Dick and Harry, claiming to be a missionary class leader or lo al minister from some distant clime for which no one save themselves can endorse. We do not deny their good intentions, but it is impossible for them to make the desired affect in the meeting. The following is a portion of a prayer uttered by one of the above a few evenings ago: Oh Lawd come down and come dis way for here is some dat am camel-backed, hump-backed, and cross-eyed. We cant do nothing wid doubt and nothing wid you; take your almighty cannon in hand and fill it full of gospel powder and graceful shot, and put an almighty cap on it and shoot a ball dis way and kill some sinner wid open before he gets haf way home.
